Welcome. Don't put too much weight on the karma system. The only real "ranking" is personal growth and recovery, which God willing you will achieve. Keep posting, stay connected.

thats very true, the karmas dont really mean too much , i personaly know of someone who made a very good/important point but it wasnt a very popular point, and he lost a couple of karmas ,so what does that show you about the karmas...

anyway hatzlacha in true shtieging!
