

Trying to elevate my shmiras einayim

Hello,

I am trying to elevate my level of shemiras anayim. B'H, I do not go on inappropriate website, as that is a red-line for me. I have installed one of the jewish filters on my home computer. However, at work, I find myself periodically looking at things I should not be looking at.

Sometimes this leads to MZ"L. About a year ago I joined this wonderful organization, GYE. Through reading the articles on GYE and getting the chizuk emails, I've made a lot of progress in this area to the point that I can go multiple weeks without "acting out". However, usually after a few weeks I will have a fall. What prompted me to post today was that recently I had a pretty bad "fall" which devastated me. It showed that I am unable to beat this challenge myself. I am hoping by interacting with the fellow members, I can pick myself back up and "stay up".

Could a filter have helped you avoid this image?

Thanks for your response. I responded to you through PM.

I would like to share with the chevra a vort I recently saw in sefer Darchei Musser on this week's parsha Nesavim that pertains to Rosh Hashanah as well.

The first pasuk in the upcoming parsha says ?????? ?????????? ?????????? ?????????? - You are standing today, all of you. (Devarim 29:9)

Rashi (29:12) brings a midrash that asked - Why is this parsha next to the the previous parsha that discusses the ninety-eight curses? The Midrash answers - Because when Bnei Yisroel heard these ninety-eight curses they turned pale, and said, "Who can possibly endure these?" Thereupon, Moses began to appease them. ?????? ?????????? ?????????? ?????????? "You have angered Hashem many times, yet Hashem has never destroyed you. Indeed, you are still standing before Him"

Darchei Musser suggests that's why the pasuk says ??????????. Because Bnei Yisroel were all together as one, that's why they were still standing. Because Hashem promise to never destroy the Jewish nation.

Darchei Musser quotes the following from the Alter of Kelm (R' Simcha Zissel). As individuals, we should be afraid as we approach Yom HaDin. Since individuals do not have this promise, they cannot rely on miracles. Therefore, the Alter gives the following advice. One should attach himself to the ????????? (community). Whether it's being involved in community needs or being part of a chaburah of growing yidden. By doing this, a person has the status of ??????????. As ?????????, we can rely on miracles as we approach Yom HaDin.

That's why the pasuk emphasizes ?????????? ?????????? ?????????? ??????????. Since each individual was part of the klal, that's how they merited to still be standing before Hashem.

I was thinking how this applies to us. As individuals we feel like dirt. We have rolled around in the "mud". We are embarrassed to look our wives and children in their eyes after the things we've seen or done. We feel like hypocrites as we stand before Hashem asking him to overlook our short fallings. Yet here we are part of the GYE community. We keep on falling and getting back up. We continue to post on the forum about our struggles and to be mechazik others in their challenges as well. We are ALL part of the ??????????. We are all working towards a unitary goal of achieving and maintaining an everlasting kedusha. This should be a zchus for us as we approach Yom HaDin.

May this be the year that we all are successful in defeating our lust behavior once and for all

K'siva V'chasima Tova

Getting a hold of yourself in middle of a fall is even greater than holding back from falling! You are a great inspiration to all of us on GYE, keep it up!

Thanks David for your words of encouragement. However, I am disappointed that I put myself in that situation in the first place. Can't ever let my guard down.

A person should NEVER put himself in a situation where he might fall. Hashem knows our strengths and weaknesses and when he sends a test we have the ability to overcome it, but when we put ourselves into a test, it might be beyond our ability to fight it...

But on a positive note, you turned that situation into a learning experience for the future...

Keep it up - you're an inspiration for all of us here!

Yesterday, I saw in one of my children's book, a small picture of the author on the back flap. For "normal" people, the picture was fine. For someone like myself that has these struggles, I found the picture to be inappropriate and triggering, so I ripped it out and threw it away. A small victory, but need to celebrate them as they come. Writing this helps me concretize this.

It's actually a MAJOR victory!

Small observation on this week's parsha. I'm always amazed when I read the Rashi that brings down the machlokes between Rav and Shmuel. What does it mean when "On that day, Yosef was going to do his work"? One opinion was he was going to give into his taiva and live with Potiphar's wife.

We are talking about one of the greatest people to ever live. He had to go through an even harder challenge than what most of us do. And he almost gave in! The battles we go through are not simple.
