

Starting Again

Hi,

I've been on here quite a few month, never posted yet as I didn't feel comfortable. Over the last 3-4 weeks I've fallen (in battle) numerous times, therefore, it now BE DECLARED AND RESOLVED that we keep our dear friends informed about our upcoming success, IY"H.

Good luck.

Take it day by day, or if need be, hour by hour or even ten minute by ten minute time blocks.

Breathe deep, be calm.

My Avatar has become a jet aeroplane, we have just boarded this flight which will take us out from the D...E...E...P... D...E...E...P... dark and depressing place we have lived in the last 10+ years.

The humor is well appreciated, it definitely does make it easier to be on here...

IS it being stated that being here (as in the 'here' defined in the END USER AGREEMENT of the cyber space hosted by www.guardyoureyes.com) would otherwise be less then pleasant?!?

My Avatar has become a jet aeroplane, we have just boarded this flight which will take us out from the D...E...E...P... D...E...E...P... dark and depressing place we have lived in the last 10+ years.

We are flying to a new world that is: light and sweet, full of life and enjoyment (real enjoyment), .... (please add on your thoughts of the new world we are going to).

"light and sweet, full of life and enjoyment..." ...happy, joyous, free, a place where we do not need to act out, somewhere where we can actualize our potentials that were given to us by the Almighty at our birth but which has gotten so buried battered and bruised by our constant acting out to be hardly recognizable to the innocent bystander. Let it be known that never again shall we be so naïve as to think that a little lusting won't go a long way. Never more shall we let ourselves go down that filthy deceptive path that says 'only a drop - I'll soon stop'. and finally, let it be known that nothing is known to us mortal man of the doings of our Almighty Loving Father in our lives.

that work, Plat?

Welcome platchik! Sounds like you are not so platchik.....Well, if I'm on here, I guess that in itself shows I am not platchik, as someone who is (probably) doesn't have the brains to sign up here. But in any case, I'm hoping one day I will be platchik enough to not have to come here.

Vha'Elokim Asah Es HaAdam Yashar (and G-d created man straight), originally we were all born 'platchik', we then educated ourselves (or were introduced to) with the wrong ideas. We strive to come back to the position we were in at the time of our creation. (Hope that goes to
