

Make it to Yeshiva

Posted by YeshivaGuy - 04 Aug 2020 05:33

Hi everyone,

First I want to say that I am humbled and honored to be in the presence of such Giborei Koach, true warriors of Hakadosh Baruch Hu.

I bh am not addicted to pornography.

I haven't been on a porn website.

But I'm getting close, and I'm here to gain chizuk not to fall into it.

Once I return to Yeshiva I'm safe, but as long as I'm home I'm in danger, and bh I haven't fallen into pornography. However it's the next step, chalila.

I bh am running a camp, so I started keeping busy, so bh have only been nichshal once in the last 3 weeks.

i want to just express my gratitude to all of you, and my great admiration for each and every one of you.

My Yetzer tries telling me "comon, porn can't be that bad, it's just the word that sounds scary" or like "it can't be so different than YouTube videos"

So I'm here to gain that chizuk.

thank you!

Hi YeshivaGuy, how is your day going?

I decided to share some great words of chizuk from the Steipler z"l (every YeshivaGuy likes to hear something from the Steipler - no?)

Don't Despair!

It is crucial that one not give in to despair, chas v'shalom. One must constantly place his hope in Hashem to help him [to prevail over his yetzer hara]. Is anything beyond Hashem's power? And Chazal have taught us: "One who seeks to purify himself will be granted Heavenly assistance."

Don't Dwell on the Past

It is crucial that one not be depressed (over his past sins), nor should he give thought to the past at all until after his marriage, which is the appropriate time to give thought to making amends [for these sins]. Rather than be depressed, one should be happy that he merits serving Hashem. Depression can lead to sin, r"l.

He Will Repair Everything

At a time when a person is in the heat of passion and restrains himself because the Torah forbids it, he draws upon himself a holy radiance whose enormous power is beyond measure, and he is akin to Yosef HaTzaddik, who sanctified Hashem's Name in private.

Someone who has prevailed over his yetzer hara many times, though he has stumbled many times, can rest assured that ultimately, he will repair everything [i.e. his spiritual blemishes in this area] through teshuvah, in merit of the times that he has been the victor.

The suffering and anguish that one experiences because he has been unable to serve Hashem properly, or because he has been guilty of a particular sin, r"l, is like an altar of atonement and is as precious before Hashem as if he had performed a mitzvah, for ?????????? ???????? ?????? (it is our hearts that Hashem desires).

Someone once came to the Steipler to complain about this problem. So the Steipler asked him "Are there times that you're misgaber" so he answered "usually I fail". So the Steipler asked again "And are there times that you're misgaber" so he answered "Yes, but rarely" so the Steipler explained to him that every time you pass the test it's a Kinyan that's yours to keep. The times that you fail are erasable. This the exact opposite of what the devious, sly yetzer Hora always tells us: that it's all worthless if we eventually fall. Don't believe him, it's a big lie.

this is what i wrote on the other thread; you are not what you choose (unless maybe you choose well). i know, i'm not the steipler, just perverted trouble, so why listen to me?

This past week I ditched the smartphone totally bh and used my new kosher phone.

It is the Quinn F30, not to be confused with the Fig phone. It has Email, Waze etc. Highly recommended to check it out.

So I was clean since last Sunday. Longest streak in a long while.

Would like to date, it's a hard call when to say I'm good enough with my trauma work until then.

Got flu shot Friday so been sick in bed, kitzur, had insane taiva on shabbos to use my phone to message the shiksa who I hadn't messaged in two weeks or so.

Close to giving in so masterbated rather than chilul shabbos (was hard cuz couldn't get outta bed so sick).

Woke up like 10min b4 shabbos was over, but opened phone (found out the time when turned it on).

(Been speaking a lot to a chaver of mine who has really stopped keeping shabbos, and I see that's had a subconscious affect on me)

Started messaging, masterbated etc.

Then told her I decided we can't speak etc etc, been. Flip flopping.

Still super not feeling well, cleaned room, listened to R Aharon Lopiansky shiur right now.

Going to sleep, hope to have good things.

I gotta delete the shiksas number on my gmail backup too.
