@Demolished/Rebuild613, I don't know why you left or why you came back but you should know that you mean a lot to me. I got a lot of chizzuk from shmoozing with you on the chat and from when you posted on mine and others threads.

??? ?????.

Sorry, there is no spell check. I don't know why you left, but if it has anything to do with GYE stuff you must know that you are a fighter, and that is the most humanistic thing there could possibly be. We are here with you through thick and through thin, please stick around even through your struggles, you have so much to offer.

Happy to have you here with us,

Wilnevergiveup

We shall fight on the beaches,

We shall fight on the landing grounds,

We shall fight in the fields and in the streets,

We shall fight in the hills.

We shall never surrender.

Winston Churchill

Even though he was not Jewish there are so many lessons to learn, his clear vision, confronting the truth as painful it is and dealing with it. And most important, knowing the enemy very well (Adolf Hitler ym"s) and understanding that giving in even the slightest would cost unbearable consequences, we should treat the Yetzer Hara like he treated the Ym's.

was preaching but not practicing,

Re: confronting the truth and dealing with it. I my mentor has begged me to write exactly all the details of what I went through, but I refused because it was too painful to revisit my youth.

Maybe one day.

Even though I don't have the courage to revisit those years, but without being in touch with my dear friends over here I'm destined to failure/destruction etc etc.

Love you all

From the depth of my heart

The reason I sometimes posting humorous posts even tough I'm not sure if it's wise, is just to hold me back of falling into depression, and from depression to slipping/falling/stumble/tumble is a hairbreadth away.

better for a person to be called a fool for his entire life than to be sinful before G-D for one moment.

so I just reveiled my middle name: Fool!!!

We enjoyed those humorous posts. Please keep them up.

(And your real middle name is Hero)
