Well, it's nice to pop by and say hi. This Forum was my absolute favorite stomping ground for more than 5 years, lots of lifelong relationships resulted and more than 100 people in solid 12 Steps recovery who I still keep up with around the world, b"H. It's a great tool, this forum. I haven't the time now, with all the phone calls and emails from GYE guys, and guys in Recovery...it's busy here! I love you people and hope I can enjoy your company here more often and even sometimes get into more good, honest discussions w you amazing people here, in the future. In the meantime, I'm a sober addict, working the 12 Steps and staying in the real life that Hashem is giving me and my family, together with many other addicts who want sobriety and real life, too. I also meet many non-addicts who struggle with fantasy, their troubling sex behaviors, and related issues. There are good paths for everyone, be'H.

A treat!

It put a smile on my face just seeing you here!

Thank you for all the work you do around here.

You don't have to post meggilahs, you can post smiley faces if you want just so that we can see your face!

Wow! Almost like an Elvis sighting!

Dov,

I miss you !!

Wont forget the time and courage you gave me when I started many years ago.

God bless you
