Comment to markz and yeshiva guy-

I wanna think about what your saying, having a hard time breaking off with someone very dear to you and having to face a 2 year break hmm I wanna ask you married fellows something ok... I'm gonna now take a way your precious wife (for the people that have good relationships with their wives ... not to the people that cvetch there wives belly is a little or big and they're not stop support running after looks and not interested in building a relationship)! So I'm gonna take her away and your not gonna be able to talk to her for 2 years and that means no more touching her no more shmoozing with her no more female attention! And keep in mind she's also let's say your best friend so we're taking that away too! And then your gonna have a little hard time adjusting... and I'm gonna tell you CODEPENDENCY! Your very unhealthy! But anyway I'm just being cute Lolol! To get to the point yes maybe there is a void she's feeling and I think it's a very simple void! Called getting bullied as a kid! Not being liked! Lack of female attention! And lacking deep emotional understanding relationships! So it's much more difficult for me to part with it!and to grant I agree with you 100% and I AM moving on with it! (With still loving her) but I'm living life now!! I just told myself I'm gonna post so I wanted to keep my word lol! Whatever it's complicated lol hahahahaha anyway chevra keep smiling!!!! We will get through this!!!

Why would she not be ok?

Maybe it's hard for you to relate to emotions... I understand that... but for many girls and emotional boys... it can be hard when facing a 2 year break... but if you can't see how it can be hard because once it's hard it becomes codependency then I can't really explain:(

I'm not married.

So that disqualifies the first half of your post.

I'm a 22 year old Buchar in Yeshiva.

I was bullied as well as a kid.

I know it's difficult.

Ur not the only one who separated from a girl he likes...

Ive seen therapists for at least the last 8 years about various things and it has greatly inhanced my life and it's highly likely it will inhance yours.

Anyway, best of luck

Are you assuming she isnt ok? are you projecting your own feelings on to her?

Based in what you've described it prob is hard but also based in what you described shesses a strong smart and capable person with great insight sounds like someone that can handle a difficult situation no?

You tell me?

In the future don't judge someone's circumstances before you attack them.

Anyway, best of luck

I'm not attacking CHAS VESHALOM!!! I love each and everyone of you! And we're here only to help each other we love each other and I promise I care a lot it feels like such a warm big family!!! I'm just espresso glasses myself passionately but maybe I was too strong I'm sorry please forgive me I really didn't mean anything personal!!!

It's ok, no offense taken.

Just not always wise to candidly discard any advice which isn't so comfortable.

Anyway I might be being too harsh now...

Buddy, no worries, zero hurt here. We're all good.

It was just that I myself as well have gone through much much much pain to be moser Nefesh to refrain/break off relationships with girls etc, so I understand you.

So I'm glad you realize what I said was coming from someone in a similar matzav, and great.

Im glad you'll consider what I wrote and we'll discuss.
