Firstly Thanku all for your reply's! The date we set up that the relationship should "end" is next ! My "girlfriend pointed out something that to think of it like rab akiva left his wife 14 years because temporarily it was better for him to grow etc ... even though they were support away physically they were still close at heart... I will continue to daven for her throughout and still care tremendously about her cuz she is someone I care about, respect and a lot of true love! this bumpy process it will bezH help us both grow and with the right mindset there's only gaining no losing by doing this... to comment on what Bego said that it's "fake" I'm sorry to sound like this but I think your comment was fake! Yes I do definitely admire you... you got out of your own different situation and keep it up...!!! And your controlling yourself from porn etc ...
AMAZING! But I think your very wrong... to say that all relationships are fake is such a stupid comment... there are millions of relationships in this world... your telling me since it's a girlfriend it's fake!?!? I hate to break it to you like this but... there are many stories of people meeting a girl when they're younger and marrying them couple years later... my own neighbor met his WIFE 3 years before they got married! I'm sorry bego... I'm proud of your accomplishments... but think your very mistaken in your comment... these comments make me feel so misunderstood... so painful... no one believes me this has real potential... I guess the day I get engaged I'll be excited to post it here to prove the world. YES it was real! Yes it was a relationship of GROWTH OF RESPECT OF REAL COMMUNICATION... I'm sorry I'm going on like this but I just think the world has to be a lil less judgmental and to stop jumping to conclusions... P.S I was fighting an intense battle with my yetzer... not to watch porn (I just got a new phone and didn't filter yet) ... so posted here to distract myself... so Thanku Hashem for this forum and GYE)!!!

Hi Shtark, apologies you were upset, not my intention at all. If you read carefully what I wrote, it says it is fake because it isn't what Hashem wants. There are of course many loving relationships that are built at a young age, yet from what you have said, you agree that it isn't the right time for this one. That being the case, the drive to maintain it is "fake" i.e. an external drive (call it the yetzer hora if that works for you) not the genuine desire to grow in your yiddishkeit that you have so impressively spoken of. Also, I'maaseh, if you were a Rebbe in yeshiva and a boy came to you, long before he was in shidduchim, and asked if he should START such a relationship, I'm assuming you would say no. Not because it might not work, but because it wouldnt be the right approach. So too, saying it is fake means it is the wrong time and the wrong place. It DOESN'T mean you don't love her (hey, I still think of my old girlf every now and then :-)) it does mean that the relationship (menaing the practical aspect) is fake i.e. unstustainable and not based on the values you so clearly espouse.

?As you say, B'ezras Hashem you'll grow, she'll grow and you'll meet back up in the future.

Apologies again.

I appreciate that!! Thanku!!!! I'm not upset don't worry ! You didn't do anything wrong... I just felt like it was like saying the relationship is fake for the future as well ... I appreciate you clarified!...

Today! I overcame one of the greatest nisyonos, I planned to go out with my special love one last time before our "break"... in my mind me AND her both KNEW we are touching 99.999999% for some reason hashem didn't allow it to happen!!!! Hashem gave my special friend the strength to say NO! When I asked !!! It was a smack in the face but the best smack anyone should ever be???? to!!! We touched so many times in the past but hashem gave us the strength today I have no idea how it happened in my mind I thought for sure were touching 100000000%!!!! We both thought me and her!!!! But she stopped me, and I continued along and at the end of our date it got very challenging for both of us!! And I'm PROUD TO SAY we both stayed strong and didn't hug goodbye!!!!!! Because we're NOT saying goodbye!! We're taking it day by day!!! Overcoming the nisayon not to talk each day!!!! And slowly with small steps we will reach great heights!!!! Tonight me and her got engaged!!!! We both know it SO WELL!!!! We're now taking a break and making a healthy decision and planning for our big simcha wedding night!!) in around 2 years from now (hashem allowing of course)!!! Thanku hashem for the great???? I had today to overcome a nisayon of???? ?? ?????!!!!!!!!!!!!
