

Again

Posted by nochamol - 21 Mar 2021 13:51

Well, here I am at this holy place telling me (and even yelling at me...) "guard your eyes".

Let me start with sharing my story - in short - with you, I'm a 27 year old chassidishe yungerman, chassidishe yungerman I said? many would consider me a chanyokishe yingerman, either way, I'm also addicted to sex and porn.

it all started, ummm, I don't really remember when but years and years, since I was little I remember myself fantasizing and lusting, as soon as I got married, although telling myself that all will get better afterward, but nothing improved it only got worse especially after being introduced and exposed to the internet with all it's harms it has to sell, I've been through a long long journey until with Hashem's help I arrived here at GYE where I hope to him that I'll finally get helped to recover from my addiction and get nearer to him once again

Welcome Nochamol!

Great to have you here.

I am a 25 year old Litvishe Yungerman and have been struggling with pornography for at least 13 years and masturbation at least 11 years. I reengaged in GYE a couple of months ago & Boruch Hashem the forum here, the posts of many Heilige people here, R' HHM, the story tellers and many more have helped and I am doing the best I have ever been in this area.

Stick around, learn, post, engage, make friends and soak up the Kedushah and gevurah.

I'd also suggest getting access to the Baal Habatim's forum for married GYEers.

Hatzlachah! Feel free to reach out just to schmooze

For those that don't know what chanyokishe means...it's hard to say it in English, maybe R Grant could explain.

Thanks everybody, good feeling to be welcomed so fast by a number of old members.

Chanyokish I would suggest they use it to call the frum of the frum.

But you know what the kotzker said what initializes the word ????, it's '??? '????? '???????
'?????...

Welcome Nochamal!

No matter how chanyokish you are this nisoyon can effect anybody.

You've come to the right place.

Keep posting and stay connected..bezh you you will learn alot of tools to tatake on the urges one day at a time.

What are sine things you tried?

Do you have a filter?

Anyone that can keep you accountable?

GYE has a partner program if not.

@Rebuild613

I know English well ??? ??? ??? ????? ????? ?????

?actually, to be honest I am already signed up on hitdanoigen.com for my Yiddish typing, now I'm here to join the holy club in english as well because if this will help bring me forward why not give it a try?

@TrueServant

I have no intention to win my only goal is to fight and guess what, "surrender" and the way ????? puts it on HDO:

???? ???? ?????? ?????? ??? ??? ? ??????????? ??????,

i guess if were supposed to be malachim than winning means perfection, but if your a person which i suppose you are because i doubt that the angles struggle with this, than winning means progression like you said fighting so keep it up and let us know whats going on, like @zedj asked do u have a filter in place? what are ur plans going into this fight?

Hi Nochamol, welcome aboard!

first of all you labeled yourself an addict pretty fast.... many believe that if you are not one the label only harms, and if you really are one, well, this forum will probably not be enough. So let's assume your not....

secondly, what exactly are you struggling with? You wrote that you are a sex addict, are you struggling with porn, masturbation etc.?

and third why do you wanna stop? Why now?

looking forward to hearing from you more!

Welcome Tzaddikel,

For reaching out you reached a very high darge.

Like I always write to make sure you have strong filters on your devises.

If you are as chassidishe as me, you probably have a flip phone, but if you dont its worth it.

Get a strong filter from techloq.

They are always coming out with better methods.

Stay here and stay strong.

DOnt be shy to share your story or struggles.

We are your anonymous brother and we all want the best for you and your marriage. We want you to succeed, but we need one thing! That is for you to stay on and dont disappear.

Nochumol we are here for you stay strong.

Just like the yidden left the bitter golus of mitzrayim you will leave you maitzarim and gvulim that are holding you back. You came in the right week. May your 20th day clean be on the first day of pesach.

Welcome

Einayim

All;

Yes, I have a filter the most stringencies of gedolim of the filter's capabilities, I can't see any human images not only shaded but completely blocked, blocked any embedded videos and whenever I'll find any loophole I'll advise it to the filter company as soon as I'll come across the loophole;

Yes, I have WEBCHAUVER with a great partner;

Yes, I have a password on my filter so that I can't request anything without entering the password, and the best part of the P/W is that my wife has half and myself the other part, so every request has to be done together with her;

Yes, I have a simple flip phone with calculator capability... only.

Yet, with all these mentioned above I can still fall and I can still cheat, which brings me to the ultimate conclusion that: "no filter and no webchaver, no wife and no kosher phone will guard me!" I have to remember that ??? ????? ????? ??? ?? it will only work if I and only I will decide with the utmost absoluteness that from now on I will try my best to stay sober, to beseech my god and try to do his will only, forever.

And to the one who asked me about my label, as I mentioned in my first comment, I come a long long way and yes, I know clearly that (unfortunately) [gladly] I meet full criteria of an addict. Remember I haven't started here, I want to be here as another tool for me in my way to sobriety and full recovery bezras hashem.
