

My 1st Roar

Posted by Gibbor kAri - 06 Jan 2022 03:54

Hi Brothers,

I am back under a new username, I've been out for a while.

I struggle with online content, live content - (as in shmiras einayim with the females in my environment) masturbation and Bi-Polar disorder to name a few.

I would love to create a 1oz 24kt yellow gold commemoration coin with the image of a lion imprinted on it when I Bs"D reach either the one year mark or the five year mark - I'm still undecided. I did some research, it's close to $3,000 including the price of the gold, creating the mold and the labor. For a long time I've wanted the feel of gold in my hands, the glint of gold on

Poll: How many of us:

1. Were born on a Tuesday?
2. Have orange/red hair and or beard?

The Gemara says that one who is born on a Tuesday will be rich and a "mezana"/znus. I don't know if we paskin like this sh*ta, though I'd be very interested in seeing what percentage of us

Hey there,

my desk

Wow, I'm about 1/2 year clean. My life story sounds similar to yours. And to answer your questions, I too was born on Tuesday and have some Red in my hair/beard.

Stay strong!

Hey RE,

It is really interesting to hear that you've also got some red and are a Tuesday'er.

Much Hatzlacha!

By the way, if your open to discuss it... what does RE stand for?

Welcome back!

What's your plan this time around?

I was born.....

Warning: Spoiler!

Hi Gibbor,

It's just the initials of a pen name I use while writing letters to the editor at times. I just prefer anonymous names here and there.

The Bipolar aspect you mentioned is fascinating, as Ive had a few episodes myself. Quite a spiritual high at times

RE,

My BiPolarity is mainly in the depressive side although I have had some strong manic high type once half my body went numb while davening uveneiyerushalayim on the roof of a building (byechidus) after finishing one of urigottesmans novels culminating in pangs for mashiach,

Hey Zedj,

I am in the learning process. Learning the art of the fight, bending my head to let the waves pass, although I am taking on water I keep fighting and spitting it out. Sorry, I'm getting carried away - I'm learning to spring back up after the fall and hoping to get support from this forum.. I would write more and think more b4 writing more, though my wife's in the room and I cannot besides having reoccurring thoughts that I may be mashiach...

Hey there! when you were saying this Tuesday thing I was like "B.S. its total garbage", well anyways I googled my birthday to see what day it was, and guess what? I was born on a TUESDAY, that is totally crazy, but I just want to add, anybody that was not born on a Tuesday don't think we think that you don't have an extremally hard struggle!

wishing you all the best, and much hatzlacha and bracha!
