Welcome to the gye family! I also got into these bad habits when i was your age, was considered one of the top bachrim in yeshiva, and im in my 20's now. So, we got pretty similar backgrounds in that sense. (Im not chasidish though). Baruch hashem with the help of everyone on the forum here and gye in general i managed to break my bad habits for the last three months (and i hope and pray that this change will last forever). So spend some time looking around gye for the different tools that can help you and keep posting on the forum. The fact that you were able to write this post shows that you are amazing!! I remember how hard it was for me to write my first post, so kudos to you on that. Wishing you hatzlacha raba and looking forward to hearing from you!

(You can also check out my thread titled "for the bachrim by the bachrim" on the 90 days section to see my story...)

Welcome!

I've also been fantasizing since a very young age, around 6, and I've actually been watching porn also since then. I'm not saying that this is the case but don't let yourself be discouraged by that fact. Habits do take some time to get rid of but you're at the right place to get rid of it as soon as possible, if it's a habit at all.
