Hello,

I am new here this is my first port,

I am 35 years old married BH to an amazing wife,

I am struggling with something that has been part of me for 20 years

no one in the world knows about this,

I have an addiction / fetish for women that shave their heads, this is all I think about all day and it causing me to masturbate often it bothers me but i am getting so much pleasure.

I need help and want to be helped.

You've come to the right place! Is this just fantasies in your head or looking at pictures/porn?

Thanks, I was hoping it was just fantasy without stimulation from pictures.

We're actually very similar. I'm also 35 and have been struggling for about 20 years though with porn and masturbation.

Baruch Hashem with the help of this site, I've been able to be sober so far for almost 4 months. There's hope!
