Hi guys,

I've been struggling with nisyonos in shmiras einayim and bris for many years now, but I've never opened up about it or talked to anyone. I've tried many efforts over the years on my own, but I think I have a lot to gain from being part of a group of serious ovdei Hashem who are committed to growth in this area.

Hopefully Be"H we'll all be successful in being the best people we can be, and bring the geula from this nisayon and the ultimate geula shelaima.

You are among an amazing bunch of guys now. I'm not speaking of myself, I'm speaking of the other people on this site who are all fighting these enormous battles themselves who still have the compassion and love for their fellow Jews that they give chizuk to people like me. I try to do that but I am not yet in the league of some of these guys! In any event, you have found the place where you can share anything. ANYTHING!! Without shame. Without fear of judgement. I have shared the experiences of my super-depraved life (before I was frum, thank G-d) and all I have received here is love and support. So welcome, new friend. Here you have a safe place. Here you have friends. Here you can gain strength. Here you will grow. Hatzlacha. I'm here for you if you want. I have found that being here for other guys is a tremendous help to myself. So bring it on, bud.
