

Finally saying.....bye!!

I have an announcement to make. No, I'm not running for president (don't want to end up behind bars). But as some of you know, I've had this dilemma with my computer job, and for the time being I'm keeping it but I am ramping up the gedarim and creating a whitelist to allow ONLY what I need for work. And since GYE is not part of my parnassa (although that could change, ahem ahem....) I've decided that as painful and difficult as it is, I will need to sign off from here for now. Maybe one day if I'm in a bad mood and I find myself in a library I'll check back in....I'M JUST KIDDING!!

But seriously I've gained tremendously from everyone here during my short stint and I'll be thinking of you guys. I appreciate the relationships I've developed during my time here, you know who you are, and I will certainly keep those up bl"n.

I would still love to build new connections if anyone is interested. My number is 2014487751 and email bradley613613@gmail.com

Keep up the amazing work everyone! The main thing is we're involved in the fight, even if we fall. And for goodness sake don't take this streak thing too seriously! Every day is a new day. (this is starting to sound like a tzavaah...)

And lastly I'd like to invite everyone to a seudas preida at my house in the city of (CENSORED)

Signing off

"Yeshayahu"

What a shame....that you're not running for president, that is. Yeshayahu, you were an asset to all of here, and beH you'll keep soaring. Way to go on ramping up the gedarim! Keep trucking!

Ay Reb Shaya,

I will miss you dearly, there is no doubt.

Thank you for your valuable contributions to GYE forums. I definitely will miss talking to you in the live chat. Thanks for all the good times.

I think I can talk in the name of the tzibbur in wishing you luck in this battle and in all your battles, and I hope you find peace and happiness, and that you achieve genuine Avodas Hashem.

Kol tuv and goodbye,

Yitz23
