

A lot of first time.

Posted by anjofegu36 - 17 Aug 2024 16:44

Hi. I have been enjoying this website for many days, but i have been struggling with starting to write because the fist time I try to communicate with someone in English. I jave been learning English but this is not my born language. By the way, sorry for my mistakes.

This is the very fist time that i try to fight against this sin in me. I did many things in my life, all they have caused lost and shame. With 42 years old and knowing about a Father who is Saint, i need to stop with all this situation. I need guidelines, partnership and control.

This has been my first day for many clean days forward.

Welcome!

This site has a been a place where many, me included found hope from feeling hopeless. Stick around, and learn from all the angels here.

If Yiddish is your language, there is a Yiddish site.

also Hashem Help Me (michelgelnert@gmail.com) helped many and speaks Yiddish (if that's your language). Here's hoping you stay and grow!
