Sorry to change the subject here.

There were a bunch of posts about weather and people giving away their locations.

NOT ADVISED.

Yes, most people here are good, wonderful, caring, etc. But there are others hanging out here as well. Some with not the best intentions. Protect yo self

Sorry in advance if I'm wrong, but I'm thoroughly convinced that "babayakob" is a non-chusid who thinks that the whiff of heimishkeit in his background will be enough to help him masquerade as a heisse chusid.

No person, no matter how illiterate, will write the way he does unintentionally.

Maybe I'm a party pooper for trying to ruin everybody's fun, but if I'm right, this is highly insensitive and deeply prejudiced.

Edit: If anyone has actually spoken with him on the phone or in person and can tell me that I'm wrong, I'll apologize and delete this post.

Mine dear brother Benny

I know I'm spelling little words then really, but I know that I also not good in English, and also there are a lot more chasidish people here who maybe are shy and scarred to posting because they also not good in English.

So I really doing it to showing that no-one should being scarred, and they should posting even with the bad English, because I know how much being part from this heilige worm family helps much more than just reading around and not becoming a part of the family.

Just f2f and reading doesn't really helping enough with P&M, but this family does help, so everyone should posting even with bad English

Hey, I was purposefully vague. NY has about 10 Choosid villes.

Including Lakewood & Toms River

I appreciate your honesty that you haven't been transparent on this thread and what your goal here really is.

If my opinion matters at all, this seems like a pretty twisted, manipulative, patronizing and paternalistic way to get chassidish people to be comfortable to get involved here.

Oh, and another thing. I put in a lot of heart and effort into my post to you back when you joined and I naively thought you were earnest. And I went through the effort of translating it into Yiddish for you. In hindsight, you must have found that quite amusing.

Curly clockwise, counterclockwise, or one of each (and which is which)?

Hey Bennyh this doesn't really sound like you, for as long as I'm here I've seen you countless times trying to take the policeman role, but you always write that the guy who's done something non intentionally wrong, should apologize.

Now here our friend Baba clearly apologized, but all you have to offer is yet another slap in his face, I think if my opinion matters you should just take it easy and leave him be, the guy clearly had good intentions, so why beat him up, he ment well and apologized for the discomfort he's caused you.

I don't mean to beat you up, just to sympathize with a fellow struggler who really wants to help others.

With love to both you bennyh and babayakob, your brother Akiva
