

A small look, in... one look less

I'll tell my friends a little about who I am, in short (more will hopefully follow).

I am a Jew (!) b"H. ????? ?????? (Chasidish).

I grew up, and still live in the Hasidic world, (which I look at today with a different & more positive view than before... I got to GYE/HDA), and I thank G-d that I was born to fruma erlicha parents, and an erlicha ultra Chasidish community, studied in erlicha ??????, from top/bottom (all ages & stages)

Somewhere around the age of 12-13, Bar Mitzvah year, a wheel started to turn up and down constantly, when the toy was covered on one's own body, even though I had a feeling that I It's not right, and this is the worst of the worst, but I couldn't help myself,

And constantly (sometimes a few days in a row, sometimes with a break of long weeks or months), happened to play and do things that I didn't really want, but felt some good(!) feeling about it

So until after the wedding, which I married B"H Fine, with a real wife of courage in all respects, thank G-d. but a few months later, everything came back and even more. after a good couple of years, starting to have access To the internet, i started to recognize new things, new ideas, things that I have ???? to, but I didn't know its happing in real life, and of course sew/watched ....yeah....things that I was very curious(!) to see, (but didn't really want to... you know that? You or maybe familiar with that inside ??????)

And so things started to get worse.....

Until... until.... I discovered the holy site, first/mainly the Jewish site ??? ???? ???? 'Keep Your Eyes' and a little later also here the English site (even its not my language ???? ???? (FYI: to this post I used Google Translate...)

And here I stand today with almost 200 days (one day at a time), may God continue to help

I have a long way came till here, and I have a more, biggger, stronger, heavier way to follow up ?? ????? ???

Thanks to hatzadik & Rabby HHM for being the ???? to stay wear I m today, (and say all thanks for @rebakiva to pusing me to this post)

Mazel tov R' onelookless on your first thread.

You truly are a legend, I'm so humbled and lucky to have gotten to know you, your strength and commitment to keeping clean are really an inspiration to me and all our fellow brothers here.

I've really gained a lot from you and our friendship.

Thanks for finally opening your own thread, where everyone will be able to shteig from your wisdom and courage, and where you'll become a part of the family.

Keep it up and keep us posted.

With love Akiva
