

Intro

Posted by moishe11 - 19 Nov 2024 17:20

Hi All,

Just a quick intro. I have been dealing with P&M my whole life. I have been sober now for around 2 1/2 years BH. i have had unbelievable growth as a person. With that being said i am not lust free. I definitely have my periods of dry sobriety as well as taking actions of lust (although they are not P&M, they are sexual actions that i shouldn't be doing). I am basically joining so i can have some accountability and take my sobriety to the next level of where i am completely lust free, and when i do have the feeling to take an action of lust to reach out here for some help. So here is day 1 on here.

Thanks for listening!

Welcome R' moishe11, you couldn't have taken a better step forward, then joining this community.

That said, accountability has proven itself to work best, with another live human being, better then just online, so please do yourself a favor and reach out to the greats, starting with the commander in chief HHM at michelgelner@gmail.com, MUTTEL at muttel15@gmail.com, or EERIE at 1gimpelovitz@gmail.com.

Hope is here, Just keep it up and keep us posted.

With love Akiva

Hey guys,

Quick check in. All clean over the weekend. Had a couple of sick days and high pressure situation but thank G-D made it through clean.

Another day today. One day at a time.

Just a quick check in.

All clean. Definitely having some financial pressures, but just trying to rely on G-D.

Acting out is definitely not going to help anything.

Hi Everyone,

So last night i slipped up. No P&M BH. but i did look at lustful pics and videos and really want to cut that out.

I need some accountability and a partner. i will check out that part of the platform on GYE.

Lets be clean today. right back at it. No self dedstruction.

My dear friend R' moishe11

I'm so sorry that you've slipped, and it really is a smart and courageous step to get some accountability, but that said IMHO I don't think it's another part of the GYE platform, it's best done on the phone with another live human being, just watching the numbers going up, isn't nearly as helpful and exciting as getting the reply text from HHM at 7:00am saying something like "hero" or "awesome", these to a lot of people give them the good feeling of warmth, and the adrenaline to keep fighting.

So please do yourself the favor and reach out to another "person" not just a online bot.

Keep it up and keep us posted

With love Akiva
