

Still an issue for senior citizens

Posted by joyfulbutterfly02 - 22 Nov 2024 15:38

I am 74 and if anything ; p and m wastes a great deal of time .

I have found that those elderly who complain the most about “respect for the elderly “ are often far more immature than most young people .

Welcome R' butterfly.

Not exactly sure what you mean by associating the immature elderly who complain about respect, to the beast of P&M that we are all here to conquer, unless if you are trying to say that you view the young people, who admit their guilt in this struggle, as the real mature people, and are therefore willing to reach out to people your junior for help.

If that's the case, I must say you truly are a courageous and MATURE person, who's willing to do whatever it takes to live a life true to your values. I really admire that.

So please feel free to reach out to the mature mentor in chief HHM at michelgelner@gmail.com, (also from the senior citizens) or the younger mature people like, MUTTEL at muttel15@gmail.com, or EERIE at 1gimpelovitz@gmail.com.

KOMT!!!

With love young and somewhat mature Akiva.

Welcome!

The amazing and scary thing about this beast is that it never goes away on its own... Feel free to reach out, I'll be happy to talk through the solutions we have for breaking out and getting clean!

All the best,

Muttel
