

IM A TZADIK!!!!

Posted by PaulONeill21 - Yesterday 15:37

I am such an amazing person, trying to work on myself day and night, trying to be a good yid a Torah Yid and a lover of Hashem and his land where I have moved to many years ago! I am trying to be the best husband and father, that's why I am here!! You know who else are amazing tzadikim?? All of u here who are putting yourselves out there to do what's right. I am done beating myself up as I have done for many many years, no more putting myself down as I have for many many years. Paul it's time for some self-love and recognize who u are. May Hashem help and bless all you tzadikim!!

Love it! You should print this onto cards and mass produce... We could all use it at times of feeling down on ourselves!

Beautiful! I think you deserve to finally get into the hall of fame! (In Cooperstown and here!)
