

Here we are

Hi everyone, I'm Yehuda. I honestly can't believe I'm writing finally. I've been visiting this website going back probably 3 years already, but I just started active participation within the last 2 weeks. I got set up with a mentor, and have been getting started with him, kinda just fleshing out all the basic concepts of this very enlightening and helpful world. It's been great, thank God. The reason I'm posting for the first time is I'm laying in bed now, just chilling, and for the first time since I've started active GYE membership I got myself in a tricky situation. ALL sorts of stuff on my screen that should not have been there. Now I'll say, before I started here, in sick a situation I wouldn't have stood a chance. Tonight though, I came straight here, stuck around here till I felt safe, and here I am. So I guess my point is, I really appreciate y'all, and we're off to a good start! Thank you for creating a space where I genuinely feel solidarity!! This is definitely the reason for me going to sleep feeling good about myself, and obviously that is priceless. Adios, be well
