

Tov veyoshor Hashem al kein yoreh chata'im baderech!

Posted by Yosef Hatzadik - 18 Feb 2010 17:44

Rabbeinu Yonah explains this posuk, (as heard from Rabbi Mattisyahu Salamon Shlit"a) that hashem leads people who were nichshal in a chet on the proper way, ze hu mah sheshalech nevi'im to teach us the proper way.

BORUCH HASHEM! We were zoche to be directed to this eida kedosha, a truly holy gathering of people who are Hashem's ONLY freinds in this lowly world. [i]Bemokom shebalei teshuva omdim ein tzadikim gemurim yecholim la'amod![/i]] We may not be like the tzadikim of previos generations, but in the dark, dirty, dingy, discusting, and degrading society we were put into, {in his infinite wisdom... we belive we are lucky to be in this generation, otherwise we wouldn't be here! HE doesn't make any mistakes!} we can accomplish even more than the amolige tzadikim did! WE CAN BRING THE GEULA! After all, a small 4 watt nightlite bulb will make all the difference whether you bump into the walls or not in if you put it in a room which is otherwise in total darkness; whereas a million candlepower searchlight does little good when used in bright daylight. As CHAZA"L say: Shraga betihara mai ahanye.

This forum is for personal intoductions, well... an "anonymous introduction" is quite a difficult feat to pull off. Just kidding, I understand the purpose, to start our connection with others and give/get chizuk.

This writer is a yungerman who has been looking at re'ios assurios even before he knew that he shouldn't be looking at them. He was doing the ma'aseh before he knew that it is an aveira, r"l. At 14 I happened to see the last chapters in the Sefer Kitzur Shulchan Oruch and discovered the rotzon Hashem (after double checking with my Rebbe that I understood what I read. I am married now with a few children, Boruch Hashem, and have been struggling with the yetzer horah since then.

Since I do consider myself somewhat of an oved hashem, after all I am jewish too, the last couple of months I generally managed to withhold from looking at the worst, but I did indulge in looking, searching, and staring at pics which my filter did let through as they are not classified as dirt in the lowest sense of the word, but were enough to be meorer the ta'avos in my heart. They were against the rotzon Hashem. The proof is that yetzer horah was pushing me to do it, and even more so, the results of these pics were often tumah ma'asim.

Brov rachamov vechasodov, I was zoche to be directed to this great and holy site by a Rabbi who knows about my struggles (I am forever indebted to him for this refferral!) and with much siyata dishmaya and the chizuk I recived from this site, I was zoche to have a highler level of shmiras einayim for the last 29 days that I haven't had since before I was a Bar Mitzvah!

Yasher Ko'ach to all the good jews who set up this site, to all those that post on this site, to all those that help fund this site, and to all those dear friends of Hakodosh Boruch Hu who value true kosher SIGHT!!!

Read the thread I started in 'Break Free', you are merely replacing your addictive compulsions with GYE. The US government saw fit to so the same with morphine addicts. Morphine is costly, and proves addictive to those suffering from extensive pain. So the US Gov. developed HEROIN. A sister drug, to serve as a cheaper substitute. But all those former soldiers wounded in battle went from being addicted to morphine, to being heroin junkies.

At the end of the day, I DO personally advise using a sister drug, a kosher one, and even better if it involves harbatzas hatorah!! However it does nothing for the cure (and may have side effects -- no guilt).

I agree with Harav Shemiras Einaim, I NEED Gye. I am not prepared to deal with withdrawal side effects. It is a pity for all those lost wages, though. :-\

...Er.....

...Ummmm...

...Or am I just hiding my head in the sand? ???

Oh! How do I decide? :-[

Oh, knock it off. ;D

Just get to work. 8)

It'll be OK, sand or no sand. :-*

Wow! 43 days already! One slip, NO FALLS!!!!!!!!!! The holy day, Purim, was day 40. As is well known, the Rebbe Reb Elimelech of Lizensk Zt"l says (in his Tzetel Koton) that it takes 40 days to change a midah.

Credit is reserved exclusively for this site. I haven't yet found time to use the handbooks properly.

You and hashem, man! You're going all the way!

Isn't be clean and connecting with hashem wonderful?

The handbooks are worth reading even if you're OK so far...I think.

1. go to www.GuardYourEyes.org

3. hold down the "Cntrl" button (bottom left or right of keyboard) and press "P"

5. Read, In the words of R Asher Arieli "ain mol iz kein mol, tzvei mol is ain mol"

7. if you have completed steps 1-6, and are ready for step 7...I am very impressed! what is step 7?

I am getting nervous. It is not the Y"H's style to let go and let live. If it looks like he let go of me, he is probably just gathering his ammunition and preparing to launch a surprise attack at an 'opportune' moment when my guard may be lowered somewhat. I know that if it is expected it is not a surprise. But I am nervous anyhow. I do not feel ready for an all-holes-barred fight with him. "Oh, Ribono Shel Olam, Yhi ratzon shetatzileinu m'Yetzer Horah!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

So start fighting now. When he shows up for a nissayon. He will already find you putting-up an overwhelming resistance.

You cannot overcome the Y"H without hashem bailing you out. He was simply created to be stronger than your willpower. And on every single madreiga of tzidkus, he can still "nitpick" and find somewhere than he has a chance. Tzaddikim also have a tayvas nashim, just in more minute areas...so minute we cannot fathom that there is even a shemetz of tayvas nashim behind it.

Try using the 12 step approach, at least the first 4 steps. they are in the handbook you printed, I think on page 24.

Have plans in place, but in the meantime - get busy living life - enjoy being yourself, enjoy being close to hashem...so that when the yetzer hora comes knocking you can say, "what you want me to give up all this?!"

Sweet!

Knowing the unfathomable depths that your posts can reach.....I just can't get it!

I tried at bash, at bach, koleil, roshei teivos, sofei teivos, and emtza'ai teivos....but i just don't get how "sweet!" is supposed to help him

Often when I see a great post and identify strongly with the message in it, I want to add something or tweak it somehow. This is not a good thing. It's controlling, annoying, and blinds me to the value in what they are saying. It took me years of working on yet still screwing up (even more than I do these days) to begin to see some progress in that habit.

So today, what I try to remember to do is just give the message that "I am so happy for you that you feel that way and glad that you posted it, too. Thinking that way makes your life good and sharing it may show somebody out there that he or she can really stop eating the same slop and get a better life for themselves."

But it's safer for me to just post something like, "Sweet!", and hope they get just that message....

Yeah, I am definitely cracked....but slowly getting reglued! ;D

(BTW, the gematria of "Matok" (sweet) is 155, and that spells "konoh"="acquired".

Chazal say: "Deyah koneesa - mah chasartah?"="If you got the right awareness - even if it was at great expense - what more could you ask for? Nothing!".....just having some fun here.... :-*)

You know, when your bad habits are the greatest posts on this site...I don't think you should work on them yet. Let's call it an "Avaira Lishma"

Work on other areas for now, and get back to this when all of klal yisrael is 'cured' of p-----
