

Tov veyoshor Hashem al kein yoreh chata'im baderech!

Posted by Yosef Hatzadik - 18 Feb 2010 17:44

Rabbeinu Yonah explains this posuk, (as heard from Rabbi Mattisyahu Salamon Shlit"a) that hashem leads people who were nichshal in a chet on the proper way, ze hu mah sheshalech nevi'im to teach us the proper way.

BORUCH HASHEM! We were zoche to be directed to this eida kedosha, a truly holy gathering of people who are Hashem's ONLY freinds in this lowly world. [i] Bemokom shebalei teshuva omdim ein tzadikim gemurim yecholim la'amod! [/i] We may not be like the tzadikim of previos generations, but in the dark, dirty, dingy, discusting, and degrading society we were put into, {in his infinite wisdom... we belive we are lucky to be in this generation, otherwise we wouldn't be here! HE doesn't make any mistakes!} we can accomplish even more than the amolige tzadikim did! WE CAN BRING THE GEULA! After all, a small 4 watt nightlite bulb will make all the difference whether you bump into the walls or not in if you put it in a room which is otherwise in total darkness; whereas a million candlepower searchlight does little good when used in bright daylight. As CHAZA"L say: Shraga betihara mai ahanye.

This forum is for personal intoductions, well... an "anonymous introduction" is quite a difficult feat to pull off. Just kidding, I understand the purpose, to start our connection with others and give/get chizuk.

This writer is a yungerman who has been looking at re'ios assurios even before he knew that he shouldn't be looking at them. He was doing the ma'aseh before he knew that it is an aveira, r"l. At 14 I happened to see the last chapters in the Sefer Kitzur Shulchan Oruch and discovered the rotzon Hashem (after double checking with my Rebbe that I understood what I read. I am married now with a few children, Boruch Hashem, and have been struggling with the yetzer horah since then.

Since I do consider myself somewhat of an oved hashem, after all I am jewish too, the last couple of months I generally managed to withhold from looking at the worst, but I did indulge in looking, searching, and staring at pics which my filter did let through as they are not classified as dirt in the lowest sense of the word, but were enough to be meorer the ta'avos in my heart. They were against the rotzon Hashem. The proof is that yetzer horah was pushing me to do it, and even more so, the results of these pics were often tumah ma'asim.

Brov rachamov vechasodov, I was zoche to be directed to this great and holy site by a Rabbi who knows about my struggles (I am forever indebted to him for this refferral!) and with much siyata dishmaya and the chizuk I recived from this site, I was zoche to have a highler level of shmiras einayim for the last 29 days that I haven't had since before I was a Bar Mitzvah!

Yasher Ko'ach to all the good jews who set up this site, to all those that post on this site, to all those that help fund this site, and to all those dear friends of Hakodosh Boruch Hu who value true kosher SIGHT!!!

Maybe, seeing his father's image reminded him of the love & closeness that existed between them. The urge to act out oftentimes comes when a person feels isolated & has an emotional 'need' to connect with someone/something. By reawakening the dormant connection to his father, Yosef satisfied his desire for 'connection' & did not 'need' to connect with others. (Be it a computer screen, passerby on the street, or Potifar's wife)

By the way how are you doing?

Not feeling this 'connection', therefore..... :-[

Time for a reevaluation of my methodology. The path which I have been following is not leading me to freedom.

Ashrecha that you are willing to reevaluate and not give up. That is really what these days are all about... we are getting rid of the Chametz and "reevaluating" our lives.... but meanwhile, we see Chametz everywhere... all the cereals and cookies are out on the table, the closets are being emptied, things are strewn all about. It looks like one big mess, but in reality, we are cleaning it up and getting ready to leave Mitzrayim for good!

What's next on the list to try?

What? You mean, your house looks that way too?

Wow... and I thought I was a slob...

I'm actually starting to feel good about myself Reb Guard!

Thanks for the chizzuk...

E

But on a serious note...

Whatever path you take Yossel, where here for you, with you, and behind you...

I won't be on this forum much until after Pesach. (Don't think that I am running away!)

I can be reached on my Google Voice number, though. (I appreciate those who call.)

My friend - did i miss something? your rethinking what? "whatever path you take..." Do you have a choice? Or did you mean you will not have access to GYE until after pasach?

We need some clarification here.

Dear 'David712',

Do you really think that GYE is the only way for us to stay clean? If so, you are barking up the wrong tree with Yosef Hatzadik!

And that's coming from me - an SA guy, of all things - who also believes there are many ways to 'make it'.
