

I need everyone's help

Posted by eliyahunavi - 20 Jun 2010 23:11

Hello Everyone,

I am new here, but I need everyone's help. I am trying to kick the habit of masturbation, as well as viewing inappropriate material whenever I get the chance. It is not often that I do get the chance, as I have CovenantEyes at home, but any chance that I do get, I fall. Also, my shmiras einayim stinks. Accountability is very powerful for me; I've seen what some of the people on this site have done, and I really want to do the same. So I'm joining.
