

Hello from Blind Beggar

Posted by Blind Beggar - 28 Aug 2010 21:19

Hello Tzaddikim! I just found this site last week. I think it is going to make my Rosh Hashono and Yom Kippur. I think the newness of the 90 day chart will get me 40 clean days to Shemini Atzeres but I am afraid of what will happen next. Does anyone have any suggestions?

I have read enough of the forum to see that you are all tzaddikim and all serving Hashem every day clean and again after every fall.

The holy Baal Shem Tov taught that the yetzer horo is more interested in the post-sin depression than in the sin itself.

Blind Beggar who wants to have eyes only for Hashem.

Very true - and that they have the right to be respected as a real person.

This is regardless of whether the woman herself might appreciate the attention - she still deserves better!

hi reb BB, how is the week of Yesod treating you?

Every day is a challange. Every woman and every girl.

I am clean for 60 days for the third time in 30 years, by the grace of God and the help of GYE and SA.

I assume you realize that no woman and no girl are a challenge for you.

The only challenge in the room is you. Your mind is the challenge.

They are just people living their real lives. You and I are the ones over here with the silly mistaken attitudes towards them who live in fantasy - or struggle to break free of it....also an unnatural state to remain in for very long.

Maybe it's just semantics.

Love you,

Dov

I am clean for 62 days, by the grace of God.

My mind challenges me to lust every time I see a woman and only Hashem can help me to be shomer my einayim. Each day is a challenge to stay out of Hashem's way and let Him help me.

I love you too, Dov.

Today I will try not to lust after, objectify or deify any woman or girl.

Tomorrow I will try not to lust after, objectify or deify any woman or girl.

The only insurance and tefila you can make today that may have some chance of being effective to improve tomorrow is doing right today. That's it.

In frum words, the only segula for tomorrow's sobriety is today's.

Not so for the white-knuckler, lo aleinu R"l, for those guys the more days they hold back, the more desperate to act out they become! For them, counting the days is the disease and the cause of their future acting out itself!

Bar minon.
