

Hello from Blind Beggar

Posted by Blind Beggar - 28 Aug 2010 21:19

Hello Tzaddikim! I just found this site last week. I think it is going to make my Rosh Hashono and Yom Kippur. I think the newness of the 90 day chart will get me 40 clean days to Shemini Atzeres but I am afraid of what will happen next. Does anyone have any suggestions?

I have read enough of the forum to see that you are all tzaddikim and all serving Hashem every day clean and again after every fall.

The holy Baal Shem Tov taught that the yetzer horo is more interested in the post-sin depression than in the sin itself.

Blind Beggar who wants to have eyes only for Hashem.

Blind Beggar, might I suggest that you come back and post on your thread?

Thanks for your reminder.

I am still sober but lusting. I have made a TaPhSiC shevua again to keep me from lusting and exploiting all the holes in K9.

Ptoooey! I never said such a nice thing. Here's what I said, in fact:

BB, get yer tochus back in here

Mazel Tov. Tell everybody! Much love, Joel

The mazal tov that Reb Joel is referring to is that Mrs B. (my wife) had a baby girl a few days ago!

We should all see only simchas and sobriety.

Good thing that you don't refer to her as "Beggar Woman", I don't really like that song.

[Just so that no one thinks I'm rude, I gave him Mazel Tov already in Meron]

Many great gedolim are referred to as 'Moron' with a capital M. As in Chazal , the Aramaic word Chamra can mean wine and can also mean a donkey. It all depends where it is situated.

Get it now?

That's a good point. I have been sober from before this baby was conceived. She must have some extra kedusha because of that.
