

Hello from Blind Beggar

Hello Tzaddikim! I just found this site last week. I think it is going to make my Rosh Hashono and Yom Kippur. I think the newness of the 90 day chart will get me 40 clean days to Shemini Atzeres but I am afraid of what will happen next. Does anyone have any suggestions?

I have read enough of the forum to see that you are all tzaddikim and all serving Hashem every day clean and again after every fall.

The holy Baal Shem Tov taught that the yetzer horo is more interested in the post-sin depression than in the sin itself.

Blind Beggar who wants to have eyes only for Hashem.

Someone hijacked his thread but he's still here.

He has to travel on buses in the Middle East during the day but still sober by SA standards.

Well, I think, unless you have a burka fetish, traveling by bus in the Middle East doesn't sound so bad.

But Israeli buses, I hear, are different...

Good to hear you're sober.

I'd rather be actually sober by SA standards as Dov - than virtually sober by GYE standards as "OnlyTeshuvahGemurah613".

Today is 498 days which are 71 weeks and 1 day of being sober. I am not called Dov but I am sober by SA's definition.

Mazel tov! That's longer than a lot of people, and look, SA had something to do with it.

Doesn't it logically follow that if anyone else wants to not have sex with self or with anyone other than one's spouse, the surefire way there is through SA?

Congrats Mottel!

But I got problems with the logic. If there is a certain disease, and only one medicine seems to work, then I would agree that the surefire way is through that medicine. But aren't there people in the GYE community who manage to stay sober for years without SA?
