

Ordinary Yingerman

Hi,

Hashem has always been extremely kind to me. I am a heimisha Yingerman in his early 30th. I am happily married over 10 years to my wonderful and beautiful wife and have got a couple of healthy sweet kids, and we have a very good relationship. I have got a good business B"H.

I grew up in a warm loving healthy family. I had a good childhood and teen years (no abuse, etc.) and received a lot of attention and compliments.

About 9 years ago, after occasionally using the Internet at a friend's office, I realized the problem the internet can be. Soon i got my own office for my business which of course was not helping.

Until i finally found GYE. I looked through part of the handbook and the attitude book and read a lot of posts on the Forum. I also subscribe to the daily emails.

The best thing actually for me was the ThPhSiC thing. It helped me so far more then anything else. Of course it has to be in conjunction with all the other tools provided. I will be joining the 90 days chart soon b"n b"H i love your name, it's a good reminder for me and everyone else to be, well, tomid besimcha.

welcome to this great place. pull up a chair next to the fireplace and not too far from the refreshment table and stay a while, a really long while. this is the best place to be. Times Square may be the crossroads of the earth but this is the crossroads of Heaven and the rent is great to have you, keep posting and reading. be"n you will get to a clean good life.

Hey OY, Welcome. Your post was so real and honest. You can definitely succeed. The most important thing I've learned is not to be isolated. to post, and put my stuff out there.

I wish you all the blessings

Hi welcome to the club. Yes we there is a lot to feel guilty for when thinking what we receive from above and what we in our foolishness give back. But that should not be a cause to pit us down just the opposite it should make increase our simcha in serving Hashem
