Read what I said carefully.

Someone once put a letter in on my behalf (for a matter related to this forum), and the answer shocked us all. Indeed, it is one that could also benefit you.

For us, it is one thing. For someone with a true Kesher, who am I to judge?

Of course I am right - I am always right.

Except when I am wrong.

Have a Gut Shabbos - I shall be signing off. Make sure you write something interesting for me to read next week - an incentive to come back! And when the Shabbos guest's glass is empty... remember to offer him more Coke!

No advice, just pity?

well, i can have a bit of a advice, just its not really a advice wich is: dont look forwads so much, through your self to hashem, get conected again to him, and hope that the joy of been close to hashem, is gonna keep u bussey, so no need for movies.

in other words start from now to be a tzadik as the gaon from vilna...

you see the problem in this...? ;D

But the second im just a regular guy, well..... i need entertainment too.....
