

Shower

Posted by LEARNING - 21 Jun 2013 05:51

Hey there,

Just wanted to share some tips that help me regarding showering. I find that the shower is a very risky time for me, and I need to be extra careful. Therefore, I:

a) try to take cold showers

b) limit my time- I usually try to limit the time to 5 minutes, counting as I go. This way, my mind is on counting and NOT other stuff. Also, the less time in the shower, the less time to fall.

Any other tips?

Thanks for your clarification. If you look at steps 4-10-they all depend on what the addict is willing to do to aid in his recovery and steps necessary to stay sober (i.e. setting boundaries, exercise, etc)
