

Fifty years

Posted by Dovid824 - 06 Jun 2018 16:52

---

Last week I gathered up the large collection of "schmutz" that I began accumulating about fifty years ago, and bundled it into trash bags for disposal. I also deleted the schmutz on my computer.

As a Baal Teshuvah, this may be the last and hardest step I've taken toward full observance of the mitzvos.

My motivation was I'm facing a life crisis that I don't think I can overcome on my own. By becoming "clean", maybe Hashem will have pity on me and give me peace.

You should know, to me, you are an example of someone that has unwavering faith.

I can learn from you.

Dear Reb Dovid

I just went through your posts. You just give me strength to go on in life. Thank you so much for posting all this.

I am also passing a life crisis and that's how i was pushed to become clean.

You are a example of a true Baal Tshouva. May Hashem Bless you with all his good and give you a good life full of achievements like this one.

Dovid, I've just read through your thread, and got tremendous inspiration seeing how someone could seemingly mechanically turn off the spigot of shmutz - permanently. It's a tremendous source of chizzuk to me as I'm beginning my first clean streak since I've joined GYE a few weeks ago.

Here's a tefilla that I, along with all my GYE brothers, can remain clean forever more, and truly flush out the iniquities of yore.

Gut Shabbos,

Muttel
