Yes Ragester. I recorded the whole thing. Oh only yhe music part of course. But its still about an hour long. Its not the greatest recording but if you listen hard youll hear all the heart and love that there was in it. I just finished listening to it in its entirety. it was just awesome.

Hashem Hashem..... weve been flooding the streets of jerusalem for 2000 yearsoh our father our king.....

Imtrying25, You really ought to post what you came up with about "Let Go and Let God," inspired at the kumzitz (which wasn't an SA meeting). That was really great.

Im going to try and send it out. I first want to get permission from all those that were there that it is ok. which btw i dont think will be a big deal. Its not the greatest of recordings but, if you listen closely and with your heart youll hear lots of heart and soul in it. Oh and lots of love too. It was a great kumzitz. BH it worked out. Thanks goes to all the guys that showed. Thank you guys.

I'm back after being offline for a few days.

First, a huge thank you to IT25 for organizing it, hosting it, and providing the food (along with the extra special surprise cake!).

Next, a big thanks to everyone who came. It was so nice to finally meet IT25, Struggle, Eye.nonymous, Levite, and of course UR!!!!

Lastly, a big thanks to Guard and 7Up who "attended" the party. For me, that was the highlight of the evening.

So, what did we do there? We ate, drank, talked, read a chizuk email, and sang.

RE the recording, I'd like to hear it all before I give my haskama. I'll probably give it, but I'd like to listen to it first just to make sure nothing personal got recorded.

Yasher kochachem, and I hope we do it again every month.
