

Navigating the ocean of my life

Posted by amevakesh - 17 Apr 2024 10:21

For the past 267 days, there have been sunny skies, calm winds, the boat's been steady, with nary a thought to the pirates that lurk beyond the horizon.

However, clouds are gathering, waves are getting choppy, and worst of all, a cry from the barrelman in the crow nest, "Pirates ahead"!!! I've been warned.

As they get closer, thoughts are swirling through my mind. I hear their evil whisperings in my head. "You thought you were off our radar, not so fast." Will they succeed in overtaking the ship I've put so much effort in constructing?

They're faster, sneakier, and more cunning than I, and I know that once they come too close, I'm doomed. But, I have an itch that needs to be scratched, a void that has to be filled, and I'm having a difficult time doing so.

But one thing I've learned here at GYE. There's safety in numbers. So I'm sending out a call to my fellow mates, can anyone help me out in how to overcome these Bein Hazmanim pirates?

A quick Google search tells me that the following are some foods Harry Potter prefers - eggs, bacon, rolls, sausage, black and white pudding, and kippers

I'll try to get them on the menu for next time.

No butterbeer???? A chocolate frog or two???

Are chocolate frogs Badatz Hechsher? And is the chocolate dairy? If yes, is it Cholov Yisroel?

Of course not! Cholorv Stam? Chas V'Sholom! Personally, I think there's no better way to celebrate the shedding of the last vestiges of our hypocrisy! Chocolate frogs. Yum! Although I think deep fried spiders are even better. Gotta love that crunch! Obviously, only if they're ???

Nestled in the the shadows of that great citadel of study, friends met, to learn, to share, and to gain from each other. They were soon joined by another, and then another. Hugs all around, ideas exchanged, topics discussed, experiences shared. Walked away fortified. T'was a huge Chizzuk for me!

Warning: Spoiler!

I was getting ready to respond that I'm insulted that I wasn't invited to the party! Given I got a private audience, I shouldn't complain!

Looking forward to the day we can have a mass GYE gathering! (my DW who thinks I'm on GYE strictly to mentor - clueless to my past struggles - asked me yesterday - "why doesn't HHM arrange for a Shabbaton for his staff of mentors??" Next is going to be her question of "where is the paycheck???)

I wasn't invited to the party, didn't get no private audience, and worst of all, didn't get no snacks!

I would like to see a GYE shabbaton. Would be quite a trip.

Hey who said u guys weren't invited - I'm pretty sure all the onlookers knew exactly what was going on, having a GYE meeting... I mean amevakesh said practically on top of his lungs I'm here meeting with iwannalivereal. Can't get any less obvious than that. Whoever wanted to join could've, no complaining.
