@rebakiva i love the humor! nice break from the tense vibes that most people automatically feel when something goes wrong:grimacing:

keep up your great attitude and keep pure!

Omg what a great way to wake up the hibernating bear, TYH

Little does one know...

I was lately not so active here for various reasons, overly busy, life stress etc, and I wasn't in such an exciting mood the last week or two, I have long forgotten about this thread, because at about 45 days I shifted back to my original thread, and I had a third thread that I was posting on, but this one totally slipped my mind.

Now when I kind of needed the exciting adrenaline to break me out of my current moods, hashem made that you should bring up this thread out of all of my other threads... I take this as a sign from hashem never to give up on the positive, humorous and EXCITING FIGHT.

TYH and his wonderful sheliach @happyjewtoo for breathing some fresh air into my lungs!

Akiva
