

Thread for reaching out contacts

Posted by hopefulposek - 12 Jan 2025 00:46

So I Had this idea to create a thread where anyone who wants to reach out to someone on gye can go to to find someone to reach out to. I think this would be a big help for me and hopefully it takes off and others can benefit form it also.

I am advising that people who are comfortable being reached out to sohuld post here 1) the methods which they are comfortable with, and 2) a link to their thread if they have one.

If anyone thinks that there are ways to improve this please let me know in a PM, or on my thread, not in a comment on the thread whichl would want to be reserved for just contact info.

Hey thanks for starting this. I think this is a great idea. Most people who are available to be contacted have their info floating around the site but not everyone does.

PM or email for my google voice number

Link to my thread is in my signature

Available most of the time for grouching, kvetching, complaining, or philosophy.

Shalom Brothers,

My email is the same as my username - BenHashemBH@gmail.com

You can also send me a message through GYE

Absolutely happy to talk to anyone. Texting is usually best (and we can try to find a good time for a call if you want)

My Google voice number will always be given at Hogwarts GYE to those who ask for it (did I get the line close enough?)

Bracha, Hatzlacha, and Kol Tov

My info is in my signature. I'd be happy to chat with anyone at any GYE that wants to shmooz or talk things through, and/or meet.

Would love to connect with anyone who wishes to do so and pass along what I've gained that may assist someone else in this battle...

Muttel

Dear All,

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to each of you who generously shared your private contact information to support others in need. Your kindness, willingness, and selflessness are deeply appreciated.

In times of struggle, it's heartwarming to see how people come together to offer help and comfort. Your compassion is a beacon of hope for those facing challenges, and your actions speak volumes about the kind of community we are building together.

Thank you for being a source of support, and for showing what true solidarity looks like.

With gratitude.

Knowing there are people we can trust to offer support and listen without judgment gives us the courage to open up about our own challenges. Your generosity has not only made others feel heard and cared for, but it has also created a space where we can all feel safer in sharing our difficulties. It's this kind of compassion that helps lift spirits and remind us that, no matter what we face, we are not alone.

Thank you for being a shining example of empathy, understanding, and connection. Your actions are a reminder that even in tough times, there's always a chance to make things better—together.

In times when we feel isolated by our problems, knowing there are people like you who are willing to listen, to support, and to offer a comforting hand, helps us feel seen and understood. You've created a space where people can open up about their struggles without fear of judgment. You've shown us that vulnerability is not a weakness but a strength, and it's through these connections that we find healing.

Your actions go beyond just helping someone in need—they restore faith in humanity and remind us all that we are not alone in our darkest moments. It's easy to feel disconnected in a world that sometimes feels distant, but what you've done has made all the difference. You've allowed others to feel safe, to feel cared for, and most importantly, to feel like they belong.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you for being the light when so many need it. You've made an incredible impact, and your generosity will never be forgotten.
