

Hurving in lernen

Posted by iseenoevil - 23 Jan 2025 20:36

The main thing that has worked for me is being areingeton. When I'm into the sugya I get no urges. Havent seen anybody discuss it but that was always stressed over the years.

Amazing keep it up! just curious how long are you clean for? and also btw which sugya?

I find that when I get into bed to go to sleep and the fantasies start creeping into my head, I can instead think of a kushya I have in the sugya I'm learning or even rethink the sugya to see if I'm missing something that I missed (like a "why" ??????? question) and that is a proper substitute to the urge. It takes only a slight amount of willpower, and works especially well if I need to have a kushya for shiur.
