

IMPORTANT YESOD

Posted by Kedusha252 - 26 May 2010 04:13

Dear members of the forum,

Today I thought of an important yesod. After a fall we get self critical and say "yes we try hard but ultimately we aren't really so good. We end up giving in so easily and don't fight like other tzadikim fight."

These are words that seem to ring true but they are the words of the Satan. How do I know these are the words of the Satan? First of all because Rabbi Shafier from the Shmuz.com says so, but secondly because when we tell ourselves we are simply poor ovdei Hashem, at that moment we lose almost all desire to serve Hashem. We feel, because I'm on a low level it doesn't even pay to fight and I won't amount to anything or grow at all.

The message of today is "I did not create me. I did not ask to be born in this taiva filled generation and I did not ask to be given these desires. But Hashem designed my life to be placed here in this generation with a strong set of desires and Hashem wants to see me struggle and progress through each nisayon. I'm going to win some and lose some but I'm going to get back in the ring and keep fighting the tide with all my koach!"

May we be zoche to fight the yetzer harah and win our battles!

TrueRatzon.

Hello late night people,

The fact that at 12:15 AM after a long date, that I was ready to go to sleep and I stopped and remembered that I didn't post yet today and I got my netbook and sat and posted is enough of a chizuk message for today to keep on listening to my neshama and shine as an eved Hashem.

Good Night...

Dear members of the forum,

Another late night post. The truth is consistency is the most important word when it comes to this fight and posting everyday and even late at night is just that.

After a long conversation with me Rebbe, at 1:23 AM I am just about ready to go to sleep!

Gut vocht members of the forum!

Just one line for tonight because again I am pretty tired.

Realize how long and hard you have been fighting this fight so far. Keep going and take every moment seriously, please! I'm asking you with complete conviction, I don't want to fall anymore, I want to win and feel great forever with eternal bliss in olam habah and a good life iy"H in olam hazeh!

Dear members of the forum,

I want to reiterate that right now shmiras einayim gets tough. The summer months re teeming with inviting human images and curiosity reaches a climax. Commit yourself to saying I will fight the very next desire that comes my way. Fight one test at a time and try your best!
