

12 Things that Worked for Me

Posted by feedtherightwolf - 04 Oct 2010 06:46

I just wrote an ebook in which I summarize everything that has worked for me:

feedtherightwolf.nfshost.com/files/Free_Recovery_Course.pdf

Or read it online: www.feedtherightwolf.org/2010/11/recovery-course.html

12 things it talks about are:

1. A chemical process that takes place in your brain causing you to get addicted
2. The addictive cycle that your body goes through and how to break out of it
3. How the human brain works and why sometimes you lose control of your actions
4. Four simple exercises to strengthen your brain
5. How to create your sexual recovery plan
6. How to control your cravings
7. An important strategy to help you beat your addiction once and for all
8. How your beliefs are causing you to suffer
9. Seven beliefs that were keeping me trapped
10. One big lesson that I learned from my relapse and what you can do to avoid my mistakes
11. Two very important tools that can magnify your recovery
12. Four things that you can do to help you stay sober for the rest of your life

Please let me know what you think!

I did use Candeo 2 years ago and found it very helpful, but it itself is not enough to get you sober. That being said it sure does help.

Thanks for doing this. I posted everything online now, so people don't even have to bother with downloading anything.
