I was just sent the following link to what looks like a promising site for those who need to view youtube videos for whatever reason -

<http://viewpure.com/>

Lechayim

You are so right.

This site is 98% shmutz. Got some "useful" stuff but i would not risk it.

So for me its completely BLOCKED

Absolutely. As I said "[/size]for those who need to view youtube videos for whatever reason" . There are those who need to use youtube from time to time, for business reasons, or whatever - they're mature enough to make that decision for themselves (or to choose to consult others). If there's a need to view youtube, this viewpure seems to be the way to avoid more triggers than necessary. [size=11px]

I would expect a little more tolerance from a site devoted to sex and porn addicts.
