I've got to tell you when my therapist recommended a website (GYE) as part of my recovery plan I thought it was farfetched. I wasn't used to using the internet for good behavior. Since my logging in to GYE I feel I have made some progress. The guy from GYE sent me "The Light of Ephraim" and it doesn't beat around the bush. It gives me answers to serious questions. When I'm done with it, if I'm done with it, I will pass it onto a friend.
