Posted by Kedusha - 13 Apr 2011 15:16

Since the GYE forum hit 20,000 posts on September 29, 2009, there has been a real explosion! We are now up to 97,685 posts and counting! That's an average of 138 posts per day since we reached the 20,000 milestone. At this rate, we will, b'Ezras Hashem, reach 100,000 posts by around the first week of May.
