[quote="tehillimzugger" post=210847]We're having a get-together tonight in Yerushalayim. So far it's me, the Lizhensker, and Pidaini. If you live in Yerushalayim and want to join: PM me.

Sorry for the short notice.[/quote]

It was gevaldig!

Thanks everyone for participating and agreeing to meet again soon!

[attachment:1]C:\fakepath\Shlomo Carlebach's Gam Ki Elech ?? ?? ????.mp4[/attachment]

Can one of you guys, who was there, give us a play-by-play recap of what went on there? [not the private parts of course].

Speaking of KUMZITZ in Yerushalayim - The first and last ever Reb Shloima C. kumzitz I ever attended, was way back in the early 80's, in Yerushalayim, and I remember that I cried when he sang "Gam Ki Elech..."

Thinking of it now, I think how much it can be applied to our daily struggles, realizing that no matter how triggering and dangerous the challenge is, if we leave it up to Hashem, we have nothing to fear, Ki Ata Imodi...

Check out the clip below:

The pictures are sooo appropriate for today's situation in EY.

And for those who don't have video access, Here's the audio link:
