

Tehillim/Daven for me!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 06 Sep 2009 01:20

Ok so a couple of things.

First of all,I think we should all accept to say a perek of tehillim at least every day for the GYE family.

Many of us have a list of the people who frequent the forum and that is great,but whoever does not just try also to say just one perek a day for the family.

I further think that it would be great if we'd say the same perek together.It would really unify us and remind us that we are not alone

Sunday, the 17th of elul,september 6th we will be saying the first mizmor "Ashrei Haish".

That is the first thing.

The second thing is that people who are going through a tough nisayon that day can request that we daven for them special and I think that will give us an extra boost as we feel that everyone is really behind us.

This is different from the "Im about to fall" thread.this is more like im going through a very tough nisayon/time.please daven for me!

So that's the second purpose of this thread.

Sound good?

Uri, Thanks for starting the Kapitel (36),

And Bardichev, thanks for continuing...it gave me a lift.

...And the next Pasuk continues

M'Shoch Chassdicha L'Yodiecha....."PLEASE Extend YOUR Kindness to those that know YOU", i.e. ALL OF GYE, among all of Klal Yisrael.

Nishmas

Uri wrote on 23 Sep 2009 17:59:

After careful deliberation i have decided that we'll split perek 18 into 2 parts.

The rule will be that anything over 50 will be split.

This is so tha we can focus on the meaning more,and when its bigger thats less likely to happen.

oh man! we gotta hit 50 to split!

i guess that was wishful thinking..., today's perek is 40 psukim.

Hey guys first time posting on this thread so here goes,

I thought of a great idea if anyone approves or disapproves please tell me. I think we should set a time when we try to get as many people as we can at the same time to say a Tefillah. If we start doing this we can make a thread where people sign up to commit to come on to the website at a certain and surely Hakadosh Baruch will see this as a sign that we really want to get better. I figured we could say a Perek of Tehillim. So for exampe we say that at 3 pm NY time were are all going to take 5 minutes and saay perek 125 with intense kavanah. I cant even begin to imagine the kochos that this would bring out. Any comment?

Dear INH,

I think it's a very good idea. However, I don't think it's essential that the Tehillim be recited at the same time, which might not be convenient for some.

maybe we can take a poll and see what times are good for people?

i think it might be worthwhile to make two times.

that way more people are likely to find one of them convenient.

isn't there a special koach in saying it at the same time?

for me, it would feel powerful just to know that other ppl, right now, are saying this too.

and don't we all the time try to arrange big atzarot tfila at one time in diff places or get ppl to say tehillim at the same time in diff places?

i know with davening, it is best to daven with a minyan in shul, if not possible, davening biyichidus at the same time that i know there is a minyan in the town

also counts for something
