

Our Israeli N'kiyim Klan-O.I.N.K

Why? it's a long story, but the truth is we don't really know what it stands for yet, so if anyone has any ideas what the roshei teivos can be, please let us know. It can be just one also, meaning either OINK or OYNK.

Yup, that is the name of our group here in Yerushalayim!!!

We, BH, got together for the second time last night. TZ, Avrom, Nitzotzeloki, Hashem's Soldier (from the olden days, soon to be on the new forum), and I, (lizhensk missed it, but he's part of it too).

It was surreal, just imagine a beautiful hill, full of grass, surrounded by trees, and in the middle.....a MUSHROOM TABLE!! (for anyone who doesn't know what that means you can ask TZ)

We had a nice conversation, about a few things, but the most important one was what the tachlis of the group was going to be, which path would we take.

We decided we'd let our larger group give us ideas and we'll discuss it next time we meet (which is, btw, hopefully every thursday night) and decide upon something.

To summerize we are asking for two suggestions,

1) What the H-E-double-hockey-stick does O.I.N.K or O.Y.N.K stand for?

2) What should the point of the meetings be?

Anyone else interested in joining is more than welcome to contact any of the above mentioned (even though there are only 6 seats at the mushroom table, we'll figure it out)

Have a GREAT shabbos!!

I don't want to be a spoilsport, but I find it a bit strange that:

1. You establish a group with meetings and then ponder what the tachlis is.
2. You establish roshei tayvos for the group and then ponder what it stands for.

Usually, both these things evolve the other way around.

(Or am I missing something?)

Anyhow - Hatzlacha Rabbah - as the sfarim hakdoshim teach us (based on Gemara Chagiga 26a & Niddah 34a) that when Yidden just come together, it brings Tahara into them.

Sometimes you just need to jump right in and only then figure out a plan.

It's just like work, we have a committees to decide what the committees should be named, and meetings to discuss what we should discuss at the next meeting (and more importantly, where well if you spend to much time thinking about what to meet about....you may never meet. but if you meet and then start figuring it out....it becomes official.

anyways....its not a mushroom table it looks more like the steering wheel of an 18 wheeler which happens to be the gye motto....keep on trucking

O.Y. = oy (like as in oy vay)

N.K.= no kidding

oy! no kiddng thats the roshei teivos?

a certain rabbi told me he comes up with roshei teivos at the mikvah....thats where i found this one

What happened was as follows, two of us wanted to get together, so we decided upon a place, one of the group called his friend and told him about it and told him to post that we would be meeting. One of the first things we realized when we were together, was how much more effective everything was when in person. So we decided to get back together, and decide what to do more together.

In other words this was not initially meant to be an ongoing group, but it would be a shame to just let it go.

Your account veers so far from what actually happened, it took me a few minutes to realize what u were talking about...

So what actually happened was that 2 of us met (Remember TZ?) then another got jealous and wanted to meet them (sounds more like it Yankel, no?) so, the first 2 made up to meet the third somewhere very quiet... and in the interim, one of the first 2 (with the agreement of the other) posted it on GYE, and then another 4 people showed up. so there.

gibbor i think i got something nitotzeloki is our essence but we also have a nefesh ha'behamis that we have to be aware of.

saying "oh im all G-dly i dont have to worry about any addictions or anything" is not ok. (also an expression is "getting into recovery is getting the monkey off your back")

TZ asked me to post the following:

Guest post, by TZ:

Only Israeli Nekiyus Chaverim, OINC

Now that we cleared that up, let's get on with the business:

A. What is our group doing?

I think we agreed to read the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, discuss it, try to implement it, and try to get guidance from Rabbi Twerski and Guard.

Additionally we can sit around and kvetch about our wives' phobia of Arab Taxi Drivers [Pidaini], their phobia of Mushroom Table Meetings [Lizhensk], or their phobia of Meeting Us [the bachurim].

B. When will our group convene?

There are some Israeli Nekiyus Chaverim [INKies] that do not live in Yerushalayim and would like to participate; late-night mushroom tables wouldn't work for them.

Some INKies [like Hashem's Soldier] learn in a strict yeshiva and can't get out during the day

[seriously? Tell your mashgiach he should worry more about where you hang out at night...]
Some INKies are serious about learning and wouldn't do something in middle of seder [Avrom, ok ok, all of us of course].

Some INKies [as previously mentioned] are afraid of their wives and prefer to smuggle out during the day and tell their wife they were learning [until of course she speaks with your chavrusa.]

Disclaimer: OINK OINK does not sanction lying to wives or Mashgichim.

So what do we do?

I think that for the majority, late night Thursday works best and as much as we would like to include Oy OY [Out Of Yerushalayim] INKies, it doesn't seem to be working out. Perhaps it's best that OyOY INKies are not included at the present time, maybe we can have a special get together Rosh Chodesh Elul or something during the day so that oyoyinkies could join. But at the present we're best off just getting our group off the ground.

We do want to accommodate Lizhensk, but truth is I don't know if it's good for the Rebbe to mingle with the oilam so much [kidding of course]. Either work something out with your wife, or convince her that you're fihring tisch because Reb Meilich Biderman is absent or something...

C. Where?

So TZ said his apartment is available during Bein HaZmanim. He was mistaken, 'tis not.
[Besides, he really can't make it look presentable from now 'til Thursday, it's a coupla weeks work at least.]

So if we do it at night, like last time, the mushroom table is a great choice, and even for those that weren't there last time, there are enough mushrooms to seat many.

If it is decided to do it during the day, a different venue will have to be found, perhaps we can go with Nitzotz's suggestion, though it'll mean a bus ride to get there, or maybe someone else has an idea- maybe the Lizhensker Poolisch or Uri's Pizza.
