For 5 or 6 years since Barditchever stopped posting, I would call him either the day before or the day after Purim to say hi. Sometimes on the day itself. I liked that guy and miss him a lot. He kept this thread going for a good number of years passing along a few healthy and helpful messages about how to stay clean with a smile, besides the kosher entertainment. G-d bless him w a wonderful year, hatzlocha and lots of good, clean fun.

U have a point. but now nowdyas PPL would stick their hands down each others pants in public... U get what I'm saying. usually if the parents DON'T look the kids get the message in their head that its bad even if it takes some time. Btw u can show normal male female interaction w/o the kissing in frontof your kids they learn FAST. But u opened a can of worms
