

The other side

Posted by BruceWayne - 22 Nov 2009 00:56

I recently came across some short autobiographical stories of pn actresses (and even actors). The following is a behind the scenes look at what goes on. Degradation, drugs (both on the set to get through the scene and off the set), abuse (particularly in childhood), depression, empty and shattered lives. It's standard fare, and this is one of the more tame examples.

So next time you feel like looking at some of that stuff, just remember that you're getting a finished product that is nothing but a lie. It's all smoke and mirrors elegantly designed to cover up the pain and the horrors that really go on.

You would also be contributing to someone's ruin (not just yours). Since you're nice guys, you wouldn't want to ruin someone's entire life, right?

Right?

I started in the porn industry back in 2003 when I was 19. It started with me doing a little nude modeling here and there, then it progressed into internet work and then I met an "agent". It all went downhill from there. The money was great for a 19 year old! But I didn't enjoy being on set and feeling degraded.

I loved the attention from everyone but now that I look back, that's not the kind of attention I deserved. But, I was young, naive, motivated by the money and the "fame". It was easy for an agent to take advantage of me, and many did.

Over the course of my porn career I have been belittled and treated like a piece of trash more than I could have ever imagined in a lifetime I would. I wasn't a woman in any of these directors eyes, I was nothing to them. The male talent at times were nice, but sometimes, they were horrible. I've had men choke me, slap me, thrust me so hard until I couldn't walk and this would happen even after I would tell them to stop. They have no respect for women.

There were always drugs and we would binge on Ecstasy, Cocaine, Marijuana, Valium, Vicodin and alcohol. I thank God I am even still here! I also did "escorting" in the porn industry for agencies where we were sent to Las Vegas to do "privates". I also know agents who lie to the girls and tell them they are shooting a scene when instead they set up prostitution acts for them.

I have cried and screamed and almost lost it at times because of this horrible industry. I have now been on Lexapro since January because I dropped to 85 lbs and it was from all the stress and anxiety from this business. I am now back up to 103 lbs and feeling better, but it's going to be a long time until I fully recover. It sucks you in and is hard to get out, but once you do get out... it's the greatest feeling ever. Although it's an extremely difficult and uphill battle, I know I'll be okay. The industry is infected with drugs and disease. I have had multiple tests come back positive for Chlamydia and gonorrhea. My so-called friends and ex introduced me to a variety of drugs and we were on a 6 month binge. All my money went to partying and my car got repossessed, I got evicted, had run-ins with the police, almost lost my contract and lost touch with my family. I almost always had to be "messed up" on set to get through it. I look back and it makes me sick because that is not the person my dad raised me to be.

I am so grateful for my son because I got pregnant and that's what made me stop partying! I was in a relationship with a Kris Slater who is also in the industry and I thought everything was great until he started getting really controlling and abusing me. He would choke me, throw me around and verbally abuse me. I thought things would get better but it continued for 3 years. I had him arrested twice and the second time, this last February was the last time I was ever going to let him do that again. He threw chairs at our son and I was not going to let anything happen to him. There is now a restraining order and I have temporary full custody and am going to fight until the end for my son to have a loving and peaceful upbringing.

My worst scene I have ever been through was the one I did when I was pregnant. That is going to be the hardest thing for me to get over. It makes me so mad that the father of my baby and ex Kris Slater would even support that and let me do it. He should have been a man and helped out!

Although, I'm very angry and hurt, I am finally learning to love again and let someone into my life after being numb for so long. When I was shooting I was blocking all emotion and it was affecting my personal relationships with everyone. I had no "real" sex life and was showed no affection because I was used to doing the motions of something fake.

That's kind of my goal, but I have to be rather selective in what I post. Some of these are quite graphic and I don't want to trip anybody up.

What has this world come to????????????????????/

P.S. give me a good sick one!Gross me out! i wanna get nausious on my key board! . >

I ask myself that every day. It's not only about what I've been posting. The whole world has gone crazy, our leaders are weak, and everything is just plain backwards. I have a friend whose father doesn't even read the newspaper anymore because it's too depressing.

I mean, when some Jihadi guy shoots up an army base and then the very next day you see stories about the "muslim community" fearing a "backlash", thus portraying the muslims as the victims instead of the perpetrators, something is seriously wrong. All you have to do is look at the statistics (www.fbi.gov/ucr/hc2008/victims.html and scroll down to "religious bias") to see that those assertions are complete and utter BS. I even saw one article, I don't remember where, that showed that, while there have been hate crimes against Muslims in the U.S., not one has ever been motivated by direct retaliation for some Jihadist activity. Not even 9/11, but the media wants you to think otherwise. You have to understand that most people are idiots. That is a Law of the Universe, and they have been conditioned to believe whatever they see on TV or read in the papers, etc.

When people--especially our leaders--would rather appease the Gods of Political Correctness than call a spade a spade, which gets innocent people killed, something is wrong with the world.

Sometimes I wish I was alive in my grandparents' generation. They didn't take any crap from anybody and they weren't afraid to do what was necessary to protect and improve our country, even if it meant "stepping on someone's toes" a bit. Now everyone walks on eggshells for fear of angering the PC gods and nothing productive actually gets done, while the guilty are protected under the wings of the Guardian Angels of Political Correctness.

The great Winston Churchill sums it up better than I ever could:

"You have enemies? Good. That means you've stood up for something, sometime in your life."

And

"An appeaser is one who feeds a crocodile, hoping it will eat him last. "

Back to the topic at hand.

Lest you think the womenfolk aren't affected much, and those here are complete anomalies:

13% of Women admit to accessing pornography at work.

70% of women keep their cyber activities secret.

17% of all women struggle with pornography addiction.

Women, far more than men, are likely to act out their behaviors in real life, such as having multiple partners, casual sex, or affairs.

Women favor chat rooms 2X more than men.

1 of 3 visitors to all adult web sites are women.

Stay tuned for more in the next few days.

I don't know if i really believe that.

not all of it, at least.

i have my reasons...

i don't want to say why i don't think it's true.

but i don't think those stats are accurate.

proof please.

and p is very not geared towards women. if they were watching as much as that study claims they are, then why are there so few sites for women? the acting on their desires makes sense, though, and so does the chat room thing.

Well, all these stats don't apply to all women or to any particular group...it's just women general. So you probably think these stats are inaccurate because they don't really apply to you or your circles. That's a good thing. And, just like with everything else in the universe, there are exceptions.

Trust me, there ARE women who look at this stuff. Some even watch it ith their boyfriends/husbands. I really don't understand it, but it happens.

And there is stuff geared specifically for women. I've seen it, and it's just as ugly as all the other crap out there. It's smoke and mirrors and STDs.

i know there is stuff geared to women. there just isn't so much of it.

i know women do watch it, i just don't think it's one in three.

more like 1 in 6 is my guess.

i could be wrong though and your right that it's all smoke and mirrors either way

Well, I honestly didn't think it was 1 in 3 either, but hey: 1/3, 1/6, either way it's too much.
