

MAKE KARMA GREAT AGAIN'!

MARK JUST POSTED THAT THE KARMA SYSTEM IS BEING GOTTEN RID OF! QUICK, CALL YOU CONGRESSMAN, CORDSMAN, TRUMPSMAN, EVEN MARKSMAN. WE NEED TO DO SOMTHING.

let's be honest. How many people in the back, front or middle of their minds know that some small part of the reason that they post is to up their karma count. We won't admit it, but let's count the thank yous to this post to see. come on, don't be shy now... you know that you want to say thank you..

Markz, can you set up a poll of how many people are for the continued usage of karmas and how many against?

I don't like negative karma, but without the negative, what's the use of the positives?

Negative karma can show new members who is generally regarded as helpful and who is not. We do have one member who has (had) about -50 karma. That says something to a new member who comes across his posts.

Personally I'd be much more in favour of 'thanks you's and 'respectfully disagree's for each individual post.

Many times I like a post except for one sentence. Without commenting, I wish there was a way to point that out.

I think that positive karma does that job. If someone has a lot of karma then they are probably respected on the forum. If not, then they are either new or they might not be respected. The post to karma ratio is helpful.

Time for a Commercial break

I did receive 1 or 2 requests to add karma's on a Google Doc, but it's not necessary, as I have updated in my signature...

Ok, now back to you Watson and Shlomo.

btw Thank you and Karma to both of you!!!

Agreed :-) I never dreamed that this thread would make it past 10 posts, let alone 4 pages! I

Everyone is invited over to "The Workout Room" (a new thread) to make some (more) headway on our addiction. Some interesting stuff has already been written.

See you there. :-)
