

HOW DID YOU FIND OUT ABOUT GYE? - (oh, and Where are you from?)

Posted by the.guard - 15 Dec 2009 12:05

I think it would be very enlightening for us to know HOW you found out about us.

- Was it an on-line ad? If so, where?
- Was it a printed ad? What mag/newspaper?
- Was it an article about us? Where?
- A flyer someone hung up somewhere?
- Did you find it on Google by chance?

- Word of mouth?
- Therapist?
- Mashgiach?
- etc...

And if you are not too afraid of anonymity issues, it would also be nice to know WHERE you live... So for example, if people could post on this thread something like this:

"Where What When" magazine - Baltimore

- Did you find it on Google while looking for bad stuff?
or something like that.

Thanks guys!

i am from overseas living in Israel i saw an online ad on (i think) one of the secular israeli newspapers most probably Jerusalem post or Israel hayom maybe it was on a charedi site but i am pretty sure i saw it on a secular site.

I think it was a small flyer for chizuk in shmiras einayim. It was in NJ.

Due to the fact that I was in denial about my issue at the time, thinking that I "had it under control" I signed up for the emails, but the addiction ones were too graphic for me. But once I started falling again and realized I needed "Major shmiras einayim" I went back on the site read some Q&A and the forum and eventually got involved.

Personally I think a major MAJOR way to spread GYE is through the "Shmiras Einayim" side of the website. Have rabonim and teachers and flyers put up for "Chizuk in shmiras einayim" and its almost like "what you don't need a chizuk in shmiras einayim?? everyone does in this world!" So alot of people would probably find out about (and visit) the site for that reason. And then PRIVATELY, once the person KNOWS about GYE they can make there way to the site.

Maybe Im biased because thats how I got here, but I personally believe that the shmiras einayim needs to really be pumped up like crazy. And once people hear about this site that its for chizuk in watching the eyes and they see it, then those that need more help can be at the right adress

I heard 'bout GYE here : dafyomireview.com/article.php?docid=147
it was this cute small pic, of that man going on a string, you know what i mean. you can see it in the left upper corner here.
I liked the pic. and it said guard ur eyes. i thought, wow, its summer and i have to do something with it. that how it all started.

I saw a mention to it in an article from Aish two full years before I acted on it. However, at the time I did send a copy of said article to myself so that when I was ready, I would have it. (Yeah, I see something, ignore it, but file it away for when I'm ready to listen. Sad, no?)

I read an article on aish.com and a lot of comments mentioned it.

THANK YOU.

It has been a while but I think that I actually found you while looking for an image of an eye. I was designing a internet browser add-in to remind myself not to look and I wanted a good image like of an eye watching. I did a Google search (don't remember the words I used) and found either the GYE logo or the picture of the tightrope walker which led me to your site.

Pennsylvania.

I'm from NYS. I was referred by my therapist to visit this site. I then told him that I have read enough Mussar books and articles in my life and none of them got me out of this hell, what will a little more mussar and chizuk articles from a website do for me?!! He didn't have an answer for me. But after a while I decided to visit the site anyway and I got caught... I came back to him and told him GYE is much more than just Musaar articles, I told him how powerful and efficient this site is with all the advice, chizuk groups and rest of the tools, he didn't know that. The rest is history...

Read the article in mishpacha, thinking how silly that guy just falling into porn, my mistake online, then that sunday, i did the same thing, while looking for something online saw a trigger for p and went for it. Later I decided whoops, let give GYE a try.
