

Gathering Together The Bachurim

Posted by stepintgerightdirection - 31 Oct 2023 14:12

I would love to gather together current and former yeshiva bachurim who have struggled with and or continue to struggle with porn and masturbation, on a shared forum to discuss and relate to each other's struggles. I don't know how that could be done but looking for other bachurim and ideas as to how to make it happen.

Whether or not it is possible, always open to personal messaging from individual bachurim who share similar struggles with porn and masturbation.

I am a frum, 21-year-old bachur, in fourth-year bais medrash in America.

I'd offer to host the BMG guys.

However, after the first 25 guys with hats and jackets walk in, my neighbors will join thinking I'm having a parlor meeting.

So what happened to this thread? I think they started a Rayzit campaign for the Hot Dogs.

@HHM - I Heard they are looking for a speaker...

Its a good thing this thread is under the Important Threads category, otherwise this thread and idea would've been forgotten about.
