Some car company has a new car with a powerful new engine on bill boards around town.

The ad copy is "You can't unpull a trigger!"

Musar Haskell at its best!

Hatzlacha in all things GOOD.

On a billboard for an exterminating company:

"The First Step Is Admitting That You Have A Pest Problem"

I wonder what the other steps are....

The 12 stomps?

I was walking down my block, and a neighbor's 1 year old looks up at me and says "Tatty!"

Reminds me of my recent vacation. I was drimmling (dozing) outside with my head on the table. My wife was sitting nearby, and she saw a man passing with his little daughter. The kid noticed me and commented, "Ah funny tatty!"

Wow, it's been a while since anyone posted here!

I was walking with my son on Shabbos, and we saw a pickup truck with big tires. My son says,

"A monster truck". It brought a big smile to my face!
